Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard ....

Faced with staggering disaster today, the Ray Gilpatrick and Gus Standish families thought first—and gratefully—of their neighbors and friends who aided them during the fire.

"They restored our faith in mankind," Mrs. Gilpatrick told Frances Clever this morning. "Mr. Standish and Mr. Gilpatrick especially want to thank the fire-fighting crews who saved the materials stacked outside the building. Their prompt action and tireless efforts prevented even more serious losses and sustained us during the shock of the disaster."

Many friends were on hand this morning to help with salvage work at the former lumber yard.

Chief Jack B. Scott of the Campbell Fire Department, Ranger Gervice Nash and his assistant Jim Sharpe, of the State Forestry Service, Deputy Charlie Gibbins of Campbell, Deputies Harvey Hutchings and Frank Sadler of the Santa Clara County Sheriff's office, and the more than 40 men who fought the blaze all came in for a big share of praise from the lumber yard owners.

Sympathy for the families and the personnel of the company was expressed on all sides today. Best wishes of their community go to all of them for a "speedy recovery."

The Allens, Martin and Betty and Deni, have bid their local friends goodbye and returned to Portland. We've heard so many nice things and kindly inquiries about them we know they are missed. Thanks, Betty, for your graciousness to us.

Betty Allen's former automobile—a Model A Ford—will continue to be part of the Campbell scene. Mrs. Barth O'Brien, rural route carrier for the Post Office here, purchased the car Saturday and will use it in delivery of U.S. mail,

High tension isn't good for trees and visa versa.

Crews from the Frank L. Nolan company, tree surgeons, trimmed trees along the high-voltage cable on Campbell Ave., in front of the Santa Clara County Library building Wednesday afternoon and said they will be pruning more trees along the cable route.

Mr. Bobby Ledlum called in today and sold us a pair of handsome cork dolls for wearing on lapels—one of the best buys we've seen for a nickel.

These doo dads are not only mighty good looking, but Bobby says he made them himself. He intends to turn the proceeds over to the Congregational Sunday School, summer sessions department, in repayment for materials used and all the fun he and his class have had this summer.

Two young theatrical producers came to our attention this week, too. Donald Morley and Ralph Marsh staged a spook show last week that had their pals and neighbors lined up waiting for admission and filled the evening air around their homes with shrieks. They worked two weeks preparing the maze of spider webs, buzzards, dummies gored with red paint, and cold, wet hands-in-the-dark. Success crowned their efforts in the form of a tidy profit.

Who says individual enterprize is a thing of the past?

Cambrian School Looks For Big Enrollment

Some 200 new homes, built this year in the Cambrian school district, form a big question mark for school officials there.

Enrollment in Cambrian school at 9 a.m. September 15 is expected to take a big jump from last year's average of some 260 pupils and completion of a three-room addition is being hurried so that more space will be available about Christmas time.

A new steel fence around the playground and other improvements are already finished.

Delos M. Bagby, principal, announced the names of five teachers who are new to the faculty. Mrs. Helen Talley, first grade teacher, annd Mrs. Violet M. Pomeroy, fifth grade, continue on the staff.

The new teachers are Miss Carmel L. Malfa, second grade; Miss Leila Merritt, third grade and vice principal; Miss Betty Maneely, fourth grade; Miss Jeanette White, sixth grade; and George Craig, seventh and eighth grades.

Mr. Craig will also drive the school bus, which will be on the same schedule as last year.

Dr. Buck To Speak On Constitution Week Program

Charity lodge No. 362, F. and A. M., will sponsor a Constitution Week program to be held Friday evening at 7 p.m., Sept. 12, in the Campbell Union Grammar school. The public is invited.

Speaker on the program will be Dr. Phillip W. Buck, professor of political science at Stanford University. The Moffett Field color guard will also be present and entertainment will be furnished by Petch and Deuville of San Francisco who will present a musical comedy and dancing routine. Lloyd Nelson of Campbell will be soloist on the program.

Committeemen in charge of the affair include James H. DeVaughn, Jr., Guy W. Smith and Claude Block.

HELP!

The Community Recreation Council is sending out a cry for help. Playground space and equipment is needed to help carry on the recreation program during the fall and winter when school children will only be in session for half days. Plans are now being made for a program but additional space is needed to carry them out. Anyone with vacant lots is urged to contact Art Tindall, director.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Mehrten, Robin Lane, came home Monday from their vacation which was spent at Camp Richardson, Lake Tahoe, and at Mehrten Short Horn ranch, Exeter, Calif.

Playground Space Needed

Continuance of the recreational program into the school year is assured providing playground space can be found, members of the Campbell Coordinating Council said.

Meanwhile, a picnic is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, and another community dance is planned for the near future.

Grammar Grades On Double Shift

Classes at the Campbell Grammar school will operate on a double shift this year, with the first regular session starting Monday, September 15, according to Principal William Henley.

All students in the Campbell area will hold classes during the morning session. Campbell students from the first through the sixth grade will meet from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Campbell kindergarten children convene at 9 a.m.

Students from the Moorpark and San Tomas areas will hold classes starting at 12:30 p.m. for children in kindergarten through the sixth grade with the kindergarten children dismissed at 2:30 p.m. and classes in the first through the sixth grades letting out at 4:30. Busses will pick up the Moorpark children around 11:40 a.m. and in the San Tomas area around 12:10.

All students in the seventh and eighth grades and the high-sixth will be in session from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with the school busses on the regular run for the older children.

School Bells To Ring Soon

"Just a few more days . . ."

Now that September is here, parents and children alike begin to think of the start of school. Children recall the fun they have had during the summer—swimming and going barefooted, picnics and vacation trips, and yet they are anxious to "see Billy or Jane and tell them where WE went this summer."

Parents begin to think with longings of the quiet hours they will have with the children safely in school, and of the new shoes, sweaters, dresses and slacks that must be gotten together before school opens. If a child is to start kindergarten this year, it is with mingled pride and heartach that the mother prepares the clothes in which her "baby" will become a school child and set out on his own. And of course the big questions are: "Will he behave and will he be scared?"

The kindergarten child thinks nothing of it—tomorrow is forever until the BIG DAY itself arrives, then they suddenlny decide that "Mommie and home" are pretty nice after all.

But, school days are coming, only a little more than a week left before September 15 arrives and the bell starts ringing. The new shoes will be donned over the care-free feet, celan hankies tucked in pockets and hearts will beat faster as each child approaches school, wondering if the new teacher will be as nice as last year's teacher and if they'll ever learn all the things they must learn this year.

It's a big day—but it isn't so bad after all!

Remains: After Two Hour Winchester Lumber Co. Blaze

One of the most spectacular fires in the Campbell vicinity struck with devastating fury last night at the Winchester Lumber company yard, completely destroying buildings and finished mill work valued at several thousand dollars. Fire fighters, under Chief Jack Scott of the Campbell district were quickly on the scene and saved many more thousands of rollars in stacked lumber. Inadequate water facilities and the combustible nature of the material being manufactured added to the fury of the blaze. Immediate plans are being made for reconstruction, according to Ray Gilpatrick, one of the owners.

DEVASTATED IN SPECTACULAR FIRE AS FIREMEN FIGHT FLAMES

Fire completely destroyed the manufacturing plant and wood-working mill of the Winchester Lumber company at the corner of Winchester and Casey Roads last night.

Damage to buildings, finished materials, lumber and newly installed machinery was estimated by W. H. Weeks at approximately $75,000. The spectacular blaze threw pillars of flame hundreds of feet in the air and attracted an after-dinner crowd of thousands. Roads leading to the scene were blocked for nearly an hour and a half.

Cause of the blaze is as yet undetermined, but it is believed to have started in a sawdust pile near the new re-saw machine from spontaneous combustion. The most serious loss is of the new equipment which had just been put into operation at considerable expense.

According to William Weeks, yard manager, the loss is only partly covered by insurance. When first notified by E. M. Borden, Jr., minister of the Church of Christ in Campbell, who was driving by shortly after the fire started, Mr. Weeks fainted from shock of the news. In a statement to the Campbell Press, he explained that he and his men had worked for about a year getting the plant into productive operation and were just now turning out a satisfactory volume of business.

The company is owned by Ray Gilpatrick and Gus Standish, who have been operating here for about a year. Immediate efforts will be made to re-build and resume business at the same location.

Through the efforts of the Campbell Volunteer Fire Department and State Forestry fire fighting crews from Alma, Almaden and Calaveras, three large trucks and two trailers were saved, as well as several thousand feet of unfinished lumber stored in the yard.

FIRST CREW AT SCENE

Campbell Volunteer firemen were first to reach the fire and battled the flames until their water supply was entirely used.

After returning to town to replenish the water tanks, they went back and joined the state forestry service units in the fight.

OWNERS OUT OF TOWN

Mr. Gilpatrick was in Carmel at the time of the fire and arrived in Campbell this morning. Mrs Gilpatrick phoned him as the fire raged through the yard.

Both Mr. Standish and Mr. Gilpatrick were at the yard today reviewing the damage and estimating loss.

Winchester Lumber Co. has just completed the building of a tract of houses and had no building in process at the time of the blaze.

"Cool And Fair" Is Forecast

Cool and fair is the weather forecast for today and Friday in the Santa Clara valley where temperatures hovered in the 90's and high 80's during the early days of the week.

While other parts of the state and nation sweltered with recordings that soared above 100 in several places, Campbell thermometers reached an unofficial 97 Sunday.

Cooling breezes this morning appeared to continue the welcome decline in the mercury.

Cambrian Inn Is New Business Here

Duncan Hines, the eminent author of a scholarly treatise on where to eat around the fair land, has missed a bet in leaving Campbell off his travel itinerary. Or maybe he doesn't know a good, old-fashioned Smosgasbord as well as his Adventures in Good Eating would indicate.

At any rate, we discovered a delightful place for relaxed eating. And right on the edge of Campbell on the San Jose-Los Gatos road at Union Avenue. Host of this unusual epicurean emporium is Frank Hoxie. Preparer of the vast array of tid-bits that go to make up one of those affairs known as Smorgasbord, is Frank's wife, Beatrice Hoxie. Her own special way of doing a job on capon and rabbit is, to say the least, a genuine treat to the palate.

The atmosphere of the club is leisurely. Frank makes a point of greeting and seating the customers personally. Small private dining rooms are available for those who wish to get away from it all in pursuit of their gastronomic endeavors. Available also are the entire facilities of the place for ladies' afternoon card clubs.

Fire Extinguished On Gilman Street

Twenty volunteers responded to a fire alarm sounded at 8:20 a.m. Tuesday.

With fields and orchards parched by unusual dryness, Campbell firemen are alert to head off the smallest blaze that might threaten the community.

A minor fire, caused by defective wiring, was extinguished in the S. A. McGinnis home, Gilman St. Damage was estimated at $10.

Fight To Control Spread Of Blaze

Valiant efforts of the Campbell Volunteer Fire Department and State Forestry fire-fighting crews failed to save the building of the Winchester Lumber Co., which went up in flames last night with an estimated loss of $75,000. Firemen concentrated on saving stacked lumber in the yard which was valued at several thousand dollars.

BATTLE OF THE MOVIES

Washington — Insiders are wagering the British labor government will ease its tax crackdown on U. S. movies.

Reason for this optimism is a trump card U.S. film-makers have been waving threateningly behind the scenes at the Atlee regime.

This counterblow is a ban on the importation of British films into th U.S.

A move of this kind would hit the British very hard. Last year they derived 22 million dollars from U.S. moviegoers; this year's estimate is around 30 million dollars.

The treatened ban is not an idle gesture. The eight largest studios in Hollywood have urged such action on Eric Johnston, film czar, if the British government doesn't come to terms. The producers already have outlawed the export of pictures to England.

PRESIDENT A FATALIST

Biggest secret service headache in guarding President Truman is his insistence on traveling by plane. The secret service is very uneasy about this; constantly is trying to figure out ways to keep Truman on the ground.

Reason they've had no luck is his fatalism. He has an unshakable view on that. He explained it to a friend.

"When your number's up," the president said, smiling, "it makes no difference whether you are in a plane, a train, an auto, or a skiff. If it's up, it's up and that's that."

A VERY WISE MAN

Kim Ho, leader of the Korean legislative assembly, has made a profound discovery. He has uncovered what makes governments go 'round. He explained it to Major Gen. Archer Lerch, U.S. military governor of Korea.

"I have learned," said Kim Ho, "that it takes a lot of talk to run a government."

TRAGIC PROBLEM

Like the weather, everyone talks about the tragic displaced-persons problem but few really do anything about it. President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall repeatedly and urgently pleaded with congress to open the door to some of these helpless war victims. But all congress did was to authorize junketing committees to go to Europe to 'investigate the situation."

The senate committee, headed by Sen. W. Chapman Revercomb, W. Va., is getting ready for an early departure. As part of his preparations, Revercomb is hiring "experts." Under serious consideration by Revercomb is Percy L. Greaves Jr., former associate of Merwin K. Hart, head of the virulently isolationist national economic council, and author of a Hart-sponsored pamphlet titled "Operation Immigration," that denounces labor, D. P.'s, and certain racial groups.

NO PARTIES PERMITTED

The Hollywood and other party revelations of the senate war investigating committee raised a question of whether it is possible to eliminate such malodorous activities in connection with wartime contracting. It is a matter of record that it was done in World War I by the navy department under forthright Secretary Josephus Daniels.

The resolute North Carolinian stopped the practice head-on by the simple expedient of forbidding it.

When the U.S. belatedly began preparing for the conflict, Daniels summoned Admiral McGowan, in charge of navy purchasing, and said, "I advise that neither you nor any member of your staff accept favors or invitations of any kind from bidders on navy contracts. I think you should go to the length of not even lunching as the guest of anyone doing or seeking to do business with the navy."

Admiral McGowan heartily agreed with this policy.

A VERY BUSY TALKER

Tall, friendly Attorney General Tom Clark got himself smash headlines throughout the country with his announcement of a justice department probe of high prices. But the moot question arises when the amiable Texan will find the time to make this probe.

In recent weeks, he has spent much of his time traveling about the country making speeches.

The following is a partial list of Clark's talks: The Rotary International convention in San Francisco; Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va ; National 4-H Clubs citizenship ceremonies in Washington; Elks' national convention in Portland, Ore.; International Sunday School convention in Des Moines, Iowa.

Legislators Asked For Views and Reasons On UMT

California's senators and congressmen today were asked for their views and reasons behind congressional failure to pass the Universal Military Training bill before adjournment of the 80th Congress, by the California department of American Veterans of World War II.

The legislators were invited to appear in person and give their explanations before the annual AMVET state convention at Long Beach, Sept. 5-7, in an open letter dispatched by William A. Burkett, state commander. Those congressional members unable to attend in person were asked to send their statements in writing or by telegram.

"Your explanation as to why Universal Military Training was not made law in the 80th Congress, as well as the action which you personally will initiate or cooperate on toward the establishment of military training as federal law, is required," the invited were told with a reminder that "we as veterans who fought the last war, and who may have to fight the next one, gravely regret the adjournment of the 80th Congress without passing this vital legislation."

Commander Burkett also pointed out that the three-day conclave will have as its main objective the formulation of a program to weld the power of World War I veterans behind enactment of UMT at the earliest possible date.

"In order to formulate a program of this nature the cooperation of each congressman and senator is sought," Burkett stated. "We want to hear personally from our representatives in Washington so that we can have all the facts and data pertinent toward the success of Universal Military Training."

All members are urged to be present as final plans will be made for participation in the state convention at Los Angeles starting September 22.

Mothercraft Classes Meet

Classes in Mothercraft will be held by the Visiting Nurses Association every Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social hall back of the Horace Mann School in San Jose, the V.N.A. has announced.

Scientific, well authenticated data regarding health and comfort during pregnancy and infant life will be presented. The discussions are general, informal and informative. Each "student" is referred for specific guidance to her physician. The Visiting Nurse Association at all times works closely with the physicians concerned.

A new series of classes is now beginning and those starting the course now will have the opportunity to graduate with a diploma given by the Adult Education Division of San Jose Schools.

Because of present resources, the visiting nurses are limited in their educational work to a five-mile radius of central San Jose. Women from Campbell are invited to attend the classes.

ATTEND CHURCH CAMP

Audry Bergland and Lorraine Wood of the high school group of the Congregational church attended state camp at Congregational Cazadero during the last week, as delegates.

Nina Page and Stanley Gould of the college age group were delegates to the college camp over the Labor Day week-end.

Riding to the State Fair

Ride 'em cowboy—or, rather, we should say cowgirl! Yes, that's right, it is a strange mount that pretty Mickey Codnoriz has, but it is one of hundreds of pieces of machinery on display at the $1,000,000 farm machinery show at the California State Fair through September 7 at Sacramento. This piece of post-war equipment is a one man tractor for use in gardens and small crop preparation.

Hornes On Way To Visit Here

On their way West by motor from Whiting Field, Milton, Fla., are Lt. Commander and Mrs. P. A. Horne and their sons, Stephen Philip and Tommy David.

In Campbell they will visit Mrs. Clayton Willis, West Campbell Ave. Since they are driving the northern route, their arrival time is indefinite—they are due here about September 20.

Lt. Commander Horne has new orders from the U.S. Navy Air Corpse and is to report to an Alaskan base soon.

Mrs. Willis is also entertaining her mother and Mrs. Horne's, Mrs. Walter B. Smith of San Francisco. Mrs. Smith is just back from a stay with the Hornes in Florida.

LEGION TO "WINDOW DRESS" U.S. BLESSINGS IN ANTI-ISMS FIGHT

The American Legion is planning to do a tremendous job of "window dressing" the blessings of the American way of life as its chief contribution in 1948 toward checking the inroads of Red Fascist propaganda in the United States.

It will launch a nationwide Americanism "refresher' campaign in which it hopes to distribute more than 120,000,000 pieces of literature dramatizi'ng the values of American citizenship rights and privileges.

Beginning with next January, The American Legion plans to place into at least 10,000,000 American homes, once a month, one vivid booklet telling in simple but forceful manner the incontestable facts about fundamental aspects of American life.

"The aim of the American Legion is to provide factual ammunition on the superiority of our way of life to our fellow citizens so they can offset infiltrating un-American philosophies of government," National Commander Paul H. Griffith said in announcing the plans for this aggressive educational campaign of truths about America. He said all means of disseminating the information and facts woud be used with emphasis on direct mailing to people in all walks of life.

He added:

"The American Legion has always fostered a faith in our country and in our form of government. We believe every ctitizen should be equipped with the startling proofs of the superiority of our democratic system. Our vulnerability lies only in ignorance. Our campaign will give them the truth and the facts to support that truth" We hope that our monthly messages will impress themselves so firmly in the minds of all individuals receiving them that these individuals will spring to the defense of their heritage of freedom against every subversive effort to destroy them."

The first of these monthly "eye-openers" about America, appropriately titled "Wanted—10,00,000 salesmen," will point out the dangers facing our national life. Subsequent pieces will tell how to fight those dangers. Through charts, pictures and latest statistics, the monthly pieces will illustrate graphically the political, economic, spiritual and material advantages of our form of government as opposed to totalistarianism

"This information will be very specific in showing why America is the greatest land on earth," Commander Griffith said. "For instance, we are going to show how the American people comprising only seven percent of the world's population are so far ahead on all the good things of life that there simply is no comparison with any other country. We will show they own 83 percent of the world's automobiles, 86 percent of all refrigerators, 81 percent of all bathtubs, 67 percent of all vacuum cleaners, 78 percent of all life insurance, 79 percent of all radios and so on."

Approved by the national executive committee of The American Legion, this nation-wide "re-sell America" campaign has been completed after months of careful preparation by the national Americanism commission in which no effort or expense has been spared to present America at its best.

FORECAST SUCCESS FOR SANTA CLARA COUNTY FAIR SEPT. 15-21

"Bigger and Better" is the theme of the 1947 Santa Clara County Fair, September 15-21 in San Jose.

This year's fair is the third annual Fair of Santa Clara County. The first one was held in 1941 and it became an immediate success. Then the war interfered and California had to wait until 1946 for the next fair.

The 1946 Fair drew 103,000 paying patrons to see the wonders of Santa Clara county on display. This attendance was double that of 1941. This year 150,000 are expected.

Premiums and prizes in 1946 amounted to $20,503.75 and numbered 4888. The 1947 fair will offer 6652 prizes and $52,533.50.

Everything in the fair will be larger this year. All exhibit space has been increased in size and number. Industrial Arts exhibit tent is now 60.000 square feet; Agricultural tent 7000 square feet and the Women's Division is 10,000 square feet. A new cattle exhibit barn is being built at a cost of $30,000 and will house 240 head of prize stock, bringing the fair capacity to 500 cattle. In addition there will be pens for breeder cattle. The fair now has 125 swine and sheep pens and 800 rabbit and poultry pens.

A new 12-acre parking lot has been added to the fairgrounds, bringing the total of official parking space to 23½ acres—enough for 3442 cars.

Also in the new additions are two new lavatories and two "County Fair Specials" auto trains to cary patrons around the grounds.

State championship horseshoe pitching matches will be held at the fair on September 19, 20 and 21, under the direction of H. W. Clear, chairman of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Assn., world's championship matches in Salt Lake City.

Biggest feature of the Fair Horse Show will be the performances of the Victor McLaglen Light Horse Troupe of Hollywood famous trick riding group. The troupe will feature tent pegging, human pyramid on galloping steeds, Roman ride race, cross-over jumping and the musical military drill. In all, there will be 20 riders, eight of which are women, mounted on coal black stallions. The Horse Show and troupe performances will be in the evenings of September 19, 20 and 21. In the afternoon of Sept. 20 the Junior Horse Show will be presented.

Grand opening to the fair will be Monday, September 15, at 7 p.m. All other days it will be at 10 a.m. until 12 midnight.

A free grandstand show will be given twice daily at the fair. One performance at 1:30 p.m. and the other at 8:15. Capacity of the grandstand is 3500 with more seats expected to be added.

Fireworks will be seen every night at 10:30. Free dancing on a new outdoor pavilion will be another feature of the entertainment at the Fair. West Coast Circut shows and carnival gayway will be at the fair.

Herb Hudson At San Mateo J.C.

Herb Hudson, who resigned as athletic director at Campbell high school last spring to accept a position at Sequoia high, Redwood City, has stepped up another notch by accepting a coaching job at San Mateo Junior College. Hudson was approached to fill both of these positions before applying. Only last week he was given his release from Sequoia.

At San Mateo J.C. he will be assistant football coach and head boxing and swimming coach. Along with his coaching duties, he will serve as a member of the physical education staff.

VACATION OVER

Tom Shaves has returned from an extended vacation at Lake Tahoe and Carmel. He reports an excellent time.

Picnic Plans Completed

The Sons of the American Legion picnic is "all set" for Saturday afternoon at Longbridge, according to Chairman Edwin Lee. Prizes from Campbell merchants are pouring in to assure that everyone participating in the games and fun will take home a prize. A Mystery Box has also been donated.

All women of the Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary are urged to bring decoraed basket lunches which will be auctioned off to the men and boys of the post. Funds derived from this source will be turned over to the American Legion building fund.

The Longbridge picnic grounds are located on the road to Big Basin out of Saratoga.

Chief's Letter Protests Careless Wiring In Homes

Editor Campbell Press:

Campbell volunteer firemen responded to an alarm from No. 10 Gilman avenue at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday morning. The home belongs to Mrs. S. A. McGinnis, who moved there but recently.

Checking the cause of the short circuit in the wiring, the firemen found two 1-cent pieces placed in back of two 30 amphere fuses. Two 30-amphere fuses would have been sufficient to have caused a sustained breaking down of the wiring, but two 1-cent pieces placed behind the same, made it more possible to continue the current to the overlcaded area.

The present property owner has assured me that she knew nothing of the heavily fused meter box of which I am satisfied.

However, in the future when new property owners or tenants move into a new home or rental, for their own benefit they should employ a capable electrician to inspect the meter boxes. This is not the first occurance of this type on our fire record book but it is the first time that any publicized effort has been made toward a preventive measure.

Do not overload any single circuits with refrigerators, radios, clocks, fans or other household appliances. At the present time there is no law prohibiting the overloading of circuits, but for your own benefit and the neighbors' benefit, it is far cheaper to have a few outlets installed than to build a new home or a block of homes.

As a volunteer fire fighting group we do not have the time to inspect each individual home, but sincerely hope if any property owner is in doubt as to his wiring he will employ a competent electrician to inspect these installations.

Respectfully,
J. B. SCOTT,
Campbell Volunteer Fire Chief.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

Two weeks ago these notes told of Judge Silva, a justice of the peace of Placer County, whose age is 93. Well, last week the Campbell judge had a birthday, making him 73.

An amusing thing about this comparison in ages is that Judge Silva, 20 years older, has six times the volume of court collections. And yet a year ago one argument being used against the re-election of the Campbell judge was that he was too old!

There is such a thing as growing older and tougher. You have been through the mill. By long experience with difficulties you have what it takes. Hence the older judge may be more on top of his job than is the younger.

There is a lot of nonsense about this age matter, however. Many people, maybe the majority, fight age. Every birthday is a sort of calamity. Take it from this philosopher, that is not the way to keep young. The way to keep young is to accept your age and take advantage of its accumulated experience. Truth youth is a thing of vital interest in life.

The older we grow the more life can mean. And meaning grows with increased understanding. And understanding grows with more and more experience.

Here, in point, is a philosophical reflection on the present interest in recreation. Playgrounds and outdoor games are being supported and excused with the argument that they decrease delinquency. Perhaps they do. But the Campbell judge played tennis on Sunday back when to do so was itself considered by many a form of delinquency

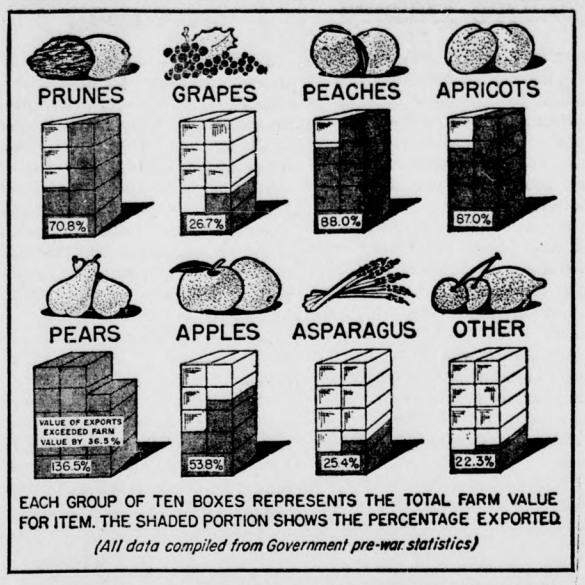
California Farm Products in World Markets



EACH GROUP OF TEN BOXES REPRESENTS THE TOTAL FARM VALUE FOR ITEM. THE SHADED PORTION SHOWS THE PERCENTAGE EXPORTED.
(All data compiled from Government pre-war statistics)

Important from a price-stabilization standpoint is the large volume of California agricultural products exported to foreign markets. The above chart, prepared by the San Francisco committee for World Trade Week, May 18-24, shows the percentage of the farm value of certain fruits and vegetables sold abroad. During the nation-wide observance of World Trade Week, the American public's attention will be called not only to the export industries, but also to the business-like promotion of American imports as a means of providing foreign countries with U. S. dollar credits for the continued purchase of American goods.

Two of the most popular sports in America are golf and bowling—partly because you can play either without everybody seeing you do it. In other words, you can play golf or bowl without being thought of delinquency.

Well, thanks to the actual delinquent almost anybody can do more and more open playing without being thought delinquent. And such an insight into progress in play gives play itself more point and meaning. If you live long enough there'll be a lot more enjoyable things you can do without being thought delinquent.

Radio "Hams" Being Alerted

Three thousand radio amateurs in Cleveland, Ohio, scene of the 48th National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to be held Sept. 4 to 9 inclusive, have offered their facilities enabling visitors to get messages back home, according to Charles Shaver of Oakland, state VFW director of amateur radio activities.

Shaver said that a message center will operate in the Cleveland auditorium which will send and receive messages to and from 250,000 members of the American Radio Relay League, an organization of "ham" radio operators.

"California radio 'hams' are being alerted to messages from Cleveland on both code and speech bands," Shaver said.

ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Hill recently enjoyed a vacation in Carmel over the Labor Day holiday.

Hold Those Bonds! Vets Advised

September 1 marked the date when Campbell veterans, along with other veterans throughout the nation, can cash in their terminal leave bonds. These may be cashed by presenting them and discharge papers to any bank.

However, it is being urged that veterans hold on to their bonds until it is absolutely necessary to obtain the cash. By holding them as long as possible the interest of 2½ percent, continues to accrue thus increasing their value.

The terminal leave bonds cover pay for unused leave accumulated by ex-service men who were entitled to 30 days leave a year, but which few men got.

A steadily increasing number of California veterans are now using their G"I" loan guarantee privilege to purchase new homes in preference to old dwellings, according to a report by Veterans Administration officials It is believed that a good many of the ex-service men who will be using their terminal leave bonds as a down payment on new homes, 60 percent of the loans being for new construction and only 40 percent for old construction.

The average home loans now being processed by the V.A. in California amount to approximately $7701.

The survey revealed that there is no hard and fast rule among California's leading institutions in requiring the veterans to make a down payment in connection with G.I. loans. However, according to Col. Thomas J. Cross, VA chief, the practices vary widely among lending institutions in various sections of the state. The veteran is a good home loan risk, with only 11 cases out of 90,000 home loans guaranteed by VA in California failing to meet their obligations.

Deputies Take Pinboards

Latest Campbell establishment to suffer in the drive led by Sheriff Howard F. Hornbuckle against gambling was Johnnie's Place on Campbell Ave. where Sheriff's deputies recently picked up a number of punch boards.

The drive is county wide and has resulted in fines amounting to $3000 to date.

Arrest Two Men For Drunk Driving

Two men were arrested for drunk driving by Campbell police during the week-end, Sheriff's deputies reported.

Well Drillers Approve Dam

Santa Clara County well drillers, engaging in their busiest year of deepening wells, lowering pumps and drilling new wells, all agreed in individual interviews last week that the proposed Lexington Dam would be a great asset in halting the drastic falling water level in this area.

Drillers of the eight well drilling concerns were in agreement upon the following points:

The water level has fallen from 20 to 50 feet this year.

As the water level drops, the decreasing pressure is allowing salt water to push inland from the bay.

With the construction of new industries in this area, farmers and industry alike are using more water than is being replaced in the ground.

Realizing the fact that on the average of 27,000 acre-feet of water goes to waste every year into the bay from the Los Gatos Creek, the Lexington Dam would serve to percolate the water over this area to bring the water level back to normal.

Many of the drillers stated that most of their work this year consists of lowering pumps and deepening wells in this area to reach the falling water level.

Art Daly of the C. & N. Pump Well Co., San Jose, stated that if the situation continues, water will become too expensive to pump and with some industries drawing as much as 1000 gallons a minute every day of the year, there soon will not be enough to go around.

DEER HUNTING TRIP

Hunt Foods To Resume Monday

Lack of pineapple for fruit salad and fruit cocktail held up canning operations at the Hunt Foods cannery in Campbell this week, according to Frank Silva, plant superintendent.

Because the ship bringing pineapple from Hawaii docked two days late, the plant had to be closed Tuesday and Wednesday. Normal operations are expected to be fully resumed by next Monday.

Canning operations are expected to continue through September, according to Silva. The flow of fruit may vary, however, making an earlier closing date advisable.

Motorists Warned On Fire Hazard

Warning to all motorists that the throwing of burning tobacco, matches or any other flaming or smouldering material from an automobile is a direct violation of state law was sounded today by the California State Automobile association.

The association appealed to the motoring public to observe extra precautions to prevent disastrous forest and range fires during the few remaining weeks of the dry season, which has been one of the longest and driest on record. The usual hazard is gretaly aggravated this year by the sub-normal rain and snow fall last winter, creating a tinder-box dryness in outdoor areas.

While Californians, in general, realize the hazard which always exists during the dry months, there are hundreds of thousands of new residents in the state and tens of thousands of visiting motorists who do not realize the damage which may be caused by a cigarette, cigar or match carelessly tossed from a moving vehicle.

Almond Hulls To Be Tried As Cow Feed

To determine the value of dried almond hulls as feed for dairy cows, tests are to be run by the animal husbandry division of the University of California College of Agriculture.

These tests will start as soon as possible after the opening of the fall semester on the Davis, Calif. campus, it is announced by Prof. W. M. Regan. Students help makes it imperative to wait until the opening of the semester, he said.

Tests were started some time ago on almond hulls as hog feed, but the swine refused to eat them. They were fed, without grinding, to dairy cows, which ate them readily. However, not enough material was on hand at that time to make a test of the food values.

Cows will be divided into lots as nearly equal as possible, and approximately 20 pounds of ground almond hulls will be included in the ration of one lot. Other lots will be fed different rations, and the value of the almond by-product will be determined by the response of the cattle at the end of the test, which will run at least three weeks, possibly more.

Judge Asks Stay Of Execution

Stay of execution of Thomas McMonigle, convicted murderer of Thora Chamberlain, Campbell School girl, was asked Wednesday by Superior Judge Samuel Finley following a hearing at San Quentin.

McMonigle was sentenced to die Sept. 21 in San Quentin's gas chamber. The state Supreme Court granted a hearing yesterdey to determine whether he should be granted a new trial and Judge Finley of Del Norte County recessed the proceeding until Sept. 23 after hearing preliminary evidence.

Undersheriff Tom Graham, chief witness in Wednesday's hearing, denied charges that he had threatened McMonigle or removed him from the jurisdiction of Santa Clara County improperly.
